

Caroline Klage

Caroline Klage heads up the specialist Child Brain Injury team at Bolt Burdon Kemp and acts exclusively for children who have sustained brain injury. She is recommended by leading legal directories whose published testimonials say she is 'incredibly responsive' (Top Tier Firm, Legal 500 2019) and 'has considerable experience' (Chambers & Partners 2019). She is also a member of the Law Society's Clinical Negligence Panel and an IPSEA-qualified Special Educational Needs advisor. Caroline is passionate about accessing the vital specialist support her clients and their families require to enable her clients to flourish. She and her team have a proven track record of achieving strong results, specifically tailored to meeting each individual client's lifelong complex needs.